A MESSAGE FROM FATHER MIKE:

The Gospel this weekend is the story of the Marriage Feast at Cana. We all know that Jesus turned wine into water at this His first miracle. It's the details of how Jesus got to this point that are important. Mary, along with the Apostles, were invited to the marriage. Mary had such great hope for her son - we just heard about her hope of the last few weeks of the Christmas Season. Mary knew Jesus could help the situation. With her prompting, Jesus celebrated His first public miracle - changing water into wine! Imagine what you can do with loving and caring prompting. Mary believed in Jesus' ability to do something great. Take time this week to prompt and encourage others to do their best. Let's see what kind of miracles can happen.

A VIEW FROM THE PEW, NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS.
