Private Prayer

Scripture tells us that Jesus often went off alone to pray. This weekend's Gospel shows that after healing many he needed some private time. You may not be aware that priests are required to go on a yearly retreat. The church recognizes that priests also need that private time. When I was ordained, someone gave me a 7-day retreat on cassette tapes (yes, it was THAT long ago). I went to a retreat center in upstate NY and each day wore my Walkman as I listened to words of wisdom. Here I am 37 years later and I can remember the impact of that retreat.

So, what does this mean to you? It would be nice to be mandated to make a yearly retreat – time for yourself in the presence of God, but we know that is improbable. What you CAN do is take small amounts of time to be alone with God. Jesus knew it was important to take the time, the church knows it's important for priests to take the time and YOU know it's important for you to take the time – do it!

Lenten Scripture Series at Good Shepherd Church

Rev. Connell A. McHugh, Pastor Emeritus of Good Shepherd, will for the 18th consecutive year offer a series of Scripture presentations in the church hall for 5 consecutive Wednesdays beginning on February 21. The presentations will begin at 9 AM and Fr. McHugh's topic will be the Gospel of Mark. He will treat the identity of Mark, sources and date composition of the Gospel, major themes, Jesus' healing ministry, titles of Jesus in Mark, the original and added ending of the Gospel, theological ideas in the Gospel, The Messianic Secret, etc. Father McHugh will show how Mark's Gospel stresses the humanity of Jesus more than any other Gospel, his Passion Narrative, the most sorrowful and how Mark is the chief source for the Gospels of Matthew and Luke. A special session will be held on Mark's Passion Narrative. The scripture sessions are open to the public free of charge. Because of the large attendance at these sessions, we ask that you register since notes will be provided. You may register by calling the office at 570-788-3141 or by stopping in the office.
