A MESSAGE FROM FATHER MIKE:

This week in Luke's Gospel, we hear the familiar Beatitudes! Jesus is speaking to a group of very poor people. He's offering Hope through the Beatitudes that there will come a time when things will be better. Of course, He is referring to eternal happiness. But you and I have the power today to change the lives of the poor. Upon hearing the Beatitudes, it should motivate us to reach out to those in need. There are so many different ways to do this. We can donate to charitable organizations financially. We can give of ourselves and service to the various food kitchens in the area. We can look around at families and see those who are poor and do what we can to help them. This weekend let the beatitudes be an opportunity for all of us to help those in need.

A VIEW FROM THE PEW, THE CHURCH IS LISTENING.

The SYNOD ON SYNODALITY was explained in detail in last week's bulletin and one might shrug their shoulders and think so how does this affect me? When you think about it, I don't recall anyone from the Vatican making a direct attempt to hear what's on the mind of the faithful in my parish and diocese. So, here's your chance to be heard. It's only 25 questions with space to write in your concerns or suggestions. Why not give it a try, you can access the survey at www.dioceseofscranton.org 2021-2023 synod on Synodality.together.
