A MESSAGE FROM FATHER MIKE:

Good morning! We continue on our journey of celebrating the Easter season. In this weekend's Gospel from John, Jesus appears again to the disciples in the upper room. Jesus continually uses the phrase, "Peace be with you." We do a great job of saying that in church. Here's a challenge for this week. There people in your lives who need to hear the phrase, "Peace be with you." Take the opportunity to find those people and offer that phrase to them. Alleluia! He is risen! Good morning again!

A VIEW FROM THE PEW, THE GARDENER.

Many words have been written about Easter, but one thing is certain, that sunrise changed the world and the course of human history. G.K. Chesterton's thoughts on that morning when Christ's friends found the grave empty are noteworthy. "In varying ways, they realized the new wonder; but even they hardly realized that the world had died that night. What they were looking at was the first day of a new creation, with a new heaven and a new earth; and in a semblance of the gardener, God walked again in the garden, in the cool, not of the evening, but of the dawn." This Easter season why not enjoy a walk with the GARDENER!
