The last line of this week's Gospel - Whoever does the will of God is brother and sister and mother to me - rings true in our hearts. We all want to DO the "will" of God, but I am not sure we all KNOW what the "will" of God is. It is as plain as the nose on your face or the person's face next to you. When we recognize the person next to us IS our brother, sister, mother, then we are DOING the "will" of God. We are called to recognize these special people, and then we are challenged to TREAT them as brother, sister, and mother. It is my experience that the best way we can recognize and treat these people in a special way is to stop judging them. That's it, stop judging!
