SECOND COLLECTION next weekend is for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development.

CANDLES ON THE ALTAR are in Memory of Michael Delese, Sr. by His Sister and Brothers

There will be a youth teen meeting this Sunday from 12:00 to 1:30 PM in our parish.

BACKPACKS FOR OUR SCHOOL KIDS IN NEED - We are collecting clear plastic backpacks filled with school supplies. If you would like to donate a backpack for our children in need and fill it with school supplies, please bring it to the altar or to the church office no later than Sunday, August 5th, so we can organize them for pickup on Saturday, August 18th. If you have trouble getting out and would like to participate, you can make a donation and we will do your shopping for you. A list of suggested supplies was included in last week's bulletin and is available on the parish website www.ourladyfreeland.org.

MASS INTENTION BOOK is open. You MUST use the form that was provided in this bulletin. Absolutely no masses will be scheduled over the phone to avoid errors.

FOOD PANTRY DONATION for July is prepared pasta meals (Hamburger Helper, Rice-A-Roni, etc). Next distribution is Tuesday, July 24th.

Jesus taught everywhere. In each town he visited, He was welcomed and, in some cases, held in awe. There was one place this welcome and awe escaped Him - His home town. The home-towners believed they knew Jesus. They saw Him grow up and knew His parents. He was a carpenter, a commoner. The folks from His hometown judged Him. They refused to see the good in Jesus and lived with their preconceived notion that He was not the Messiah. I don't know whether to be angry with those folks or feel sorry for them. Their real sin was a closed mind! They refused to see Jesus any other way, in spite of the great works He did in other areas. Yes, Jesus taught everywhere. Have you rejected Jesus' teaching because you judge other people?

A VIEW FROM THE PEW, MAYBE IT'S TIME TO LISTEN.

Thomas Craughwell of the National Catholic Register reviewed a book "How the Church Influenced (and still can) Western Civilization" authored by William Slattery. In his review he mentioned the exploits of Saint Boniface (c.680-754). He was a missionary who brought the Catholic faith and culture to then barbarian Germany. He did something missionaries rarely did in the Dark Ages, listen. He would sit down with pagan priests and give them the opportunity to explain what they believed and why, then and only after they finished, he would point out the faults of their arguments and explain the beauty and truth of the Catholic faith. The simple act of listening can diffuse a tense situation, convert a doubter or just result in a more pleasant discussion of a problem. All of us can do a better job of listening. It worked for St. Boniface, why not give it a try!

CHARISMATIC MASS AND HEALING SERVICE at St. John Bosco Church, Conyngham, will be held on Thursday, July 19th at 7 PM. Fr. Gus Riccardi will preside and Sue Shaw will begin her music ministry at 6:45 PM. Refreshments available afterward in Room 3.

THE SCRANTON CATHOLIC CHARISMATIC RENEWAL is sponsoring its 36th annual conference at the University of Scranton during the weekend of August 3 - 5. This year's theme is: "He restores my soul!" The Conference will feature inspiring speakers and uplifting music. Mass is celebrated each afternoon. A well-stocked book/gift store will be available. Separate tracks for Children and Youth are also available. The full-weekend Registration Fee is $50 up to and including July 23rd and $65 after July 23rd. Single-day registration is also available on-site. Commuting and brown-bagging is encouraged, while dormitory housing and cafeteria meals are available at a moderate cost. For Registration Forms, please see the Bulletin Board on our website www.ccrscranton.org or email ccrconference@comcast.net. You may also write to: CCR Conference, PO Box 3306, Scranton, PA 18505, or call the CCR Office at 570-344-2214.

WEDDING OF THE SEA bus trip will be on Wednesday, August 15th. More information will be provided in future bulletins.
