Greetings and Happy Easter!

Today is the central event of the Catholic Church - The Resurrection of Jesus! If you're reading this, you probably came to church on Easter Sunday. Maybe you're there every week (thanks). Maybe we haven't seen you since Christmas (it was nice seeing you again). In either case, the real joy of the Resurrection will be next Sunday, April 7/8. The reason I say this? If Easter means anything to you (more than just dressing up special, flowers, and chocolate bunnies), then you will be here next weekend. The church is always full Easter weekend, and I thank you for your presence. The real miracle of Easter is coming back again the NEXT Sunday. See you next week, or not?

A VIEW FROM THE VIEW, "HE TOOK BREAD..."

"And it happened that, while He was with them at table, He took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but He vanished from their sight." (LK 24:31-32) With softer hearts and our eyes opened, let us go forward and spread the good news! He has truly risen! On behalf of the Liturgy Committee have a Blessed Easter!
